

Jasmina Ibrahimpašić was born in 1998 in Tešanj. She attended the "Kulin Ban" Primary School in Tešanjka and spent most of her childhood in the vicinity of Tešanj and Doboj, as well as in Dobrinja, Sarajevo. After primary school, she enrolled in the "Musa Ćazim Ćatić" Grammar School in Tešanj. In early October 2013, she moved with her family to Sarajevo, where she continued her education at the Second Grammar School of Sarajevo. After graduating from high school, she enrolled in the Faculty of Law at the University of Sarajevo and obtained a Bachelor of Laws degree in 2022. Her high school years were marked by activism in various organizations, such as the Association of High School Students in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the European Youth Parliament in Bosnia and Herzegovina. While at university, she participated in the European Law Students' Association in Sarajevo. In her free time, she enjoys reading books at Wilson's Promenade, watching Korean dramas from the comfort of her bed, or writing poetry. Her favorite poet is Desanka Maksimović. Occasionally, she indulges in photography and painting on canvas.
