

Born in 1999 in Sarajevo, Anja Stergar graduated from the High School of Applied Arts and in 2022 from the Academy of Fine Arts, Department of Graphic Design. She has participated in several group exhibitions, both regional and international. She is currently pursuing a master's degree program at the Academy of Fine Arts in Sarajevo, where she is researching the national visual identity and symbols of Bosnia and Herzegovina with the aim of creating a new, unified visual language.