

Born in 2002 in Banja Luka, Vladimirka Velaga graduated from primary and secondary school there. In 2021, she enrolled in the Academy of Arts at the University of Banja Luka, Department of Painting. Her mediums of expression are drawing and painting and she also explores fields such as art installations and video art. She works as a costume designer on student short films and theatre plays. Her love for textiles extends to the research of embroidery and its incorporation into her works, as well as sewing. She is actively engaged in dance. As a student, she participated in several group and solo exhibitions in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the region.